Getting there

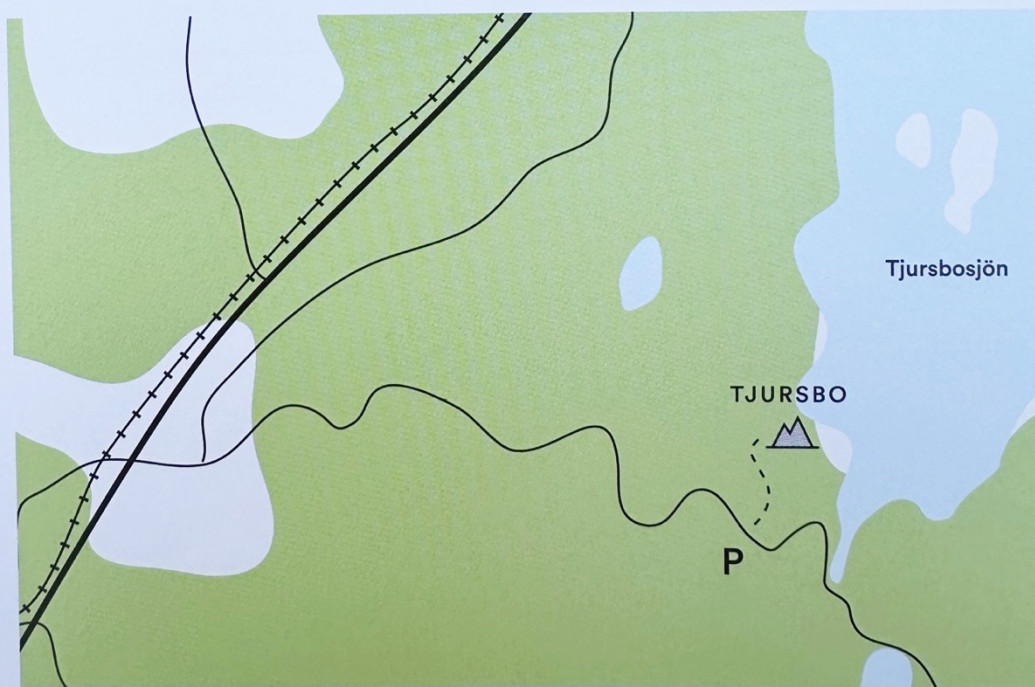

The crag is located by Tjursbosjön about 22 km south of Västervik and it takes about 30 min to get there. Drive onto the E22 and turn west onto road 33 towards Vimmerby. After the radio mast on your left you turn left and then south towards Ankarsrum by the Gustavsberg sign. After 4 km you turn left by the 'Ekenäs' sign, there's a small house on your left.

Drive 1,8 km on the gravel road and stop to the left on a ridge where there's a parking lot on your left (if you continue down the slope you'll at a house by Tjursbosjön). The path from the parking lot by the gravel road to the crag on the hill is marked. Follow the path 1 km northeast. Keep to the left when you arrive at the top of the crag. You will arrive at Introvägen first.
