Getting there

From Västervik drive on the E22 to Gamleby. Drive on road 135 which leads to Kisa. Turn right by the 'Mulestad' sign. After 3 km turn right towards Tysebo and after 2 km the wall will turn up on your left. It takes 50 min to get there from Västervik.

Park by the gravel road and note there is not path to the crag, instead you walk 300 m through the forest until you arrive at the crag.
